Hello lisa,

Thank you for the information, the graffiti on Lexington and highland is on the building 1213 highland (simon's camera). I will double check this, just fyi it was already reported to hbt with RP, Judy. In regards McCadden and Lexington. i will try to see if the theater is able to help us with the gravel if no success and if the gravel does not pertain to the theater, i will report this to the city for pick up. I will keep you updated.

Thank you and have a good day

Dear Captain Acevedo:

Please be advised that the graffiti tagging on Lexington (north side) is actually on a residential apartment building which is not part of the BID therefore we cannot provide services . The debris (gravel and construction material) at the corner of Lexington/McCadden Place at the Celebration Theatre has been there for the past month or longer. I have made numerous requests to the owners Joy and Jay Rinaldi to have the material removed however they have not done it. Perhaps you could speak to them about the gravel in the street?

Advise
